

Study Indicates PTA's Favor School Shelters

Results of a statewide study by PTA units indicate that fallout shelters should be considered when new schools are built, according to a special report received by the California Disaster Office.

The study, which local PTA units have worked on for the past several months, indicates that most of the reporting groups support shelters in school. Actual figures were as follows: of 994 PTA units in California reporting, 555 unqualifiedly called for shelters in new school construction.

Another 106 units favored shelters as long as funds to build them were not diverted from a sound educational program. Only 75 reporting units opposed school shelter, and another 75 rendered no opinion.

THERE WERE 183 units which requested additional study time because they felt there was an opportunity for PTA to do a good job of interpreting these programs to school families and to the communities.

The PTA units studied materials provided by the California Disaster Office, favoring school shelters, and materials provided by organizations opposed to shelters and/or the entire civil defense program.

COMMENTING ON this situation, CDO Director Allan K. Jonas said: "The California PTA study results confirm the stand already taken by the PTA supporting the entire concept of civil defense, of which school shelters are but one facet."

Jonas went on to say that the Disaster Office "expects the positive results of this survey to be favorably reflected in our legislative program for school shelters at a state and national level. Specifically, we refer to the Federal Shelter Incentive Program to help finance shelters in schools, hospitals and welfare institutions."

Garden Checklist

1. Feed lawns this month to give them a good start as weather warms up.
2. Snails and slugs are active this time of year. Scatter snail bait in strategic hiding places, such as ivy and flower borders.
3. Divide established clumps of perennial phlox and Shasta daisy. Plant new perennials from the nursery.
4. Try to complete bareroot planting of roses and fruit trees by the end of February.
5. Ranunculus bulbs can still be planted. Or, if you set them out last fall, make a second planting now for later bloom. They are also available started in flats.
